

Jason Russo - TOPSoccer Buddy

- Became involved in TOPSoccer program with the first ever Special Olympics as a volunteer coach consisting of 10 players in age from 13-36
- Jason worked hard at each practice and game to teach players both offensive and defensive skills, to instill a sense of team belonging and to ensure that every player was having in a safe environment
- Serves as the Public Relations Chair for Lexington Youth Soccer TOPSoccer where he has been instrumental in securing radio interviews and a front page story in the Lexington Herald Leader as well as producing a monthly TOPSoccer newsletter
- In addition to working with the Lexington Youth Soccer TOPSoccer program – he plays in the adult outdoor league with LYSA and an indoor team at Kentucky Indoor