

Tammy Clothier – Girls Recreational Coach

- Became involved in soccer when her eleven year old daughter started playing soccer at the age of 5.
- In the Spring of 2008, after years coordinating snacks, transporting girl to practice and games, and cheering loudly, her role evolved to become assistant coach.
- In the Fall of 2008, after the head coach resigned due to personal reasons, Tammy took over as head coach.
- She focuses on teamwork, respect, and sportsmanship while making a big emphasis on players praising each other.
- Believes that great sportsmanship and teamwork help develop key characteristics in young adults.

