

Danny Collier – Girls Competitive Coach

- Has been coaching for Central Kentucky Soccer Club since 2003 and currently coaches the Under 14 Kentucky Youth Soccer State Champions
- Holds the United States Soccer Federation D License
- Former football player at Morehead State University
- Began coaching education by renewing his library card and read every book he could get his hands on
- Motivates and encourages his players to not only becoming better players, but more importantly better people

