"Every year we receive several high-quality applications for the John and Sue Gompper Founders Scholarship, and this year was no different. As we review each application, we learn so much about the incredible individuals within our community and the positive impact they have on and off the field," said Kris Zander, Executive Director of Kentucky Youth Soccer. "The applicants exemplify passion, dedication, resilience and hard work, all skills that are learned within the youth soccer system and help build a strong foundation for their future. Kentucky Youth Soccer would like to congratulate the 2021 Gompper Scholarship recipients and the entire class of 2021 for their accomplishments."
