

KENTUCKY YOUTH SOCCER ASSOCIATION

---

SOCCER LEARNING UNIVERSITY

Maren McCrary

Girls ODP Director

USYS Midwest Region

Maren Hendershot McCrary was a two-time Division I All American forward at Brigham Young University where she is still the school's second all time leading scorer. After graduating, McCrary played professionally for the San Jose CyberRays and Carolina Courage in the first American professional league, the WUSA. McCrary, who was inducted into the Brigham Young University Hall of Fame in 2010, was also a former technical director for Nebraska State Soccer and has coached at the collegiate, high school and youth soccer levels. She is currently the Midwest Region Girls ODP Director, as well as the state ODP Director for Colorado. McCrary has a USSF A license and is a U.S. Soccer Coaching Education Instructor.

Maren and her husband Josh have three children: Cumorah, Jordan and Justis.