

STAN ANDERSON

He serves as the GK Director for FC United and is the Assistant Coach for Men's Soccer at UIC (University of Illinois at Chicago). Additionally, Stan is the Founder of Camp Shutout LLC, a renowned platform for goalkeeper development.

With a coaching career spanning D1 college soccer since 1996, Stan has made a significant impact at institutions like UWM, Marquette, Loyola, Wisconsin, and UIC. His coaching journey boasts remarkable achievements, including 8 NCAA Tournaments, induction into 3 Halls of Fame, and a National Championship with USSDA - Chicago Fire U18, showcasing his ability to nurture top-notch talent.

As an alumnus of UW Parkside, where he earned All-American honors in 1990, Stan's prowess as a goalkeeper and coach is well-established. Camp Shutout, under his leadership, has grown to host approximately 800 goalkeepers annually, with 450 goalkeepers in residence during a power-packed week in late July each year.

Stan's influence extends into the professional arena, having developed dozens of professional goalkeepers. He is married to his wife Mary, and has two sons, Toney and Tank. Connect with him on social media: @camp_shutout on Instagram, @campshutout on Twitter, and @coachstananderson on Facebook.
